THE PRESIDENT.

The ferocious abuse of General Grant by the Democratic party, says Harper's Weekly, is an illustration of the real feeling of that party. It cannot forgive his victory over the rebellion. It hopes by a fog of slander to obscure the national remembrance of his great and glorious service to the country. But the people of the United States know very well that the worst mistake of his administration is white as snow compared with the deeds of the best of traitors and rebels, the last Democratic National Administration. While the Democratic papers sneer at the Cabinet, whose personal character and efficient official service they cannot question, the people have not forgotton the last Democratic Cabinet, in which Jeremiah S. Black, who declared that the Union could not lawfully be maintained by arms, was Secretary of State; and Howell Cobb, one of the chief rebel chiefs, was Secretary of the Treasury, plotting to destroy the national credit; and Jacob Thompson was Secretary of the Interior; and Isaac Toucy, who sent the national ships out of reach, was Secretary of the Navy; and John B. Floyd, who tried to transfer the national arms to rebels before the war begun, who fled as a rebel General from Fort Donelson, and who died execrated by every honorable American, was Secretary of War.

This precious society of patriots was the last Cabinet which the Democratic party furnished to the country, at its head was Jas. Buchanan, whose supporters now gibe at General Grant! James Buchanan was the faithful instrument of the slave masters, and when they raised their hands to destroy the Union and the Government, that great Democratic statesman, under the advice of Jeremiah Black, whimpered that they had no right to do so, but that the country had no right to help itself! These were the men whom the Democratic party and papers, which now abuse General Grant, called to power when they last carried a national election. And the party is not changed. As it was the organization by which slavery worked its will then, so it is that by which the Ku-Klux would work its will now. As it elected Vance to the Senate from North Carolina, and Blair from Missouri, when he said that he would undo reconstruction by the army, so it would send Jefferson Davis from Mississippi, and Robert Toombs from Georgia, could it but have a little more encouragement.

The Democratic hatred for General Grant is the Ku-Klux Klan hatred of loyal men in the Southern States. He is the perpetual monument of the crushed rebellion. His presence in the White House is the constant assertion of the supremacy of the Republican principle of liberty, union and law. The same spirit which hissed at Lincoln as a gorrilla and a despot, and at the Union soldiers as hirelings, denounced Grant in the field as a butcher, and scolds at him now as a fool.

But he was not dismayed by Democratic rage when it took the form of fire and he is not likely to be disheartened by it now that it is froth. But when the abuse is loudest it is well to reflect what party it is that utters it, and how its men and its services to the country compare with General Grant and what he has done. It is natural that those who thought Robert E. Lee a Christian hero and gentleman should think General Grant a butcher, that those who sneer at Longstreet as unfaithful to his cause because, when conquered, he honestly surrendered, should refuse to honor General Thomas; and that those who excused the horrors of Andersonville should make light of the Ku-Klux-Klan. This is all natural, but is it so such a spirit that the government can be safely intrusted?

BRIGHAM YOUNG has ordered from a house in Chicago a spring outfit for a part of his family. The order is for twenty-six velvet cloaks and twenty-six dresses; also, sixty suits of male attire and thirty-six dress coats.

MAKE READY.

Only next year, we are to have, says the Tribune the most infuriated Presidential contest since 1800. Meantime, we shall have shout after shout over astounding Democratic triumphs in local elections just as we had in 1857, when they claimed Ohio and Pennsylvania, and nearly everything else; carrying this State by Fifty Thousand majority, though they were fairly beaten in the Presidential struggle the next year, and only seemed to win by gigantic frauds. There are feuds among the Republicans which ought not to exist; there are disaffection and coldness, and bickerings, which will reduce the vote in most of the intermediate elections, and electrify our adversaries with expectations of choosing the next President and Vice-President. This will incite fresh outcroppings of total depravity, and arouse the Republicans to concerted and desperate exertion. There were polled 5,824,688 at the Presidential Election, in which Mississippi, Texas and Virginia did not participate, while Florida choose her Electors by the Legislature. Every State will vote next time, and there will be polled about six and a half millions of legal votes, with (we trust) fewer illegal than in '68, when this State was carried for Seymour and Blair by gigantic frauds at the ballot-boxes, while Georgia and Louisana were made to go the same way by so menancing and affrighting the blacks of many counties that they dare not offer to vote, or were coerced into voting the ticket which they hoped and prayed would be beaten. If every legal voter is allowed to vote his choice in '72, no one voting twice, and none but a legal voter voting at all, there can be little doubt as to the result; but fraud will swell the Democratic vote at the North, while coercing and terror will again reduce that of the Republicans at the South, so that no man can foresee the result. Perhaps the amended Election Law of Congress will preclude illegal voting and false counting in our State, in which case we can settle the right here; but it will not do to rely on that. Nearly every State will be fought with desperation, and three-fourths of them conflicting hopes. Maine, Massachusetts, Vermont, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Iowa are all that the Democrats will not seriously try to carry; while we shall strive hopefully for every one, not excluding Delaware, Maryland, and Kentucky, in which the present probabilities are strong against us. From Madawaska to the Rio Grande, from Cape Hatteras to Puget's Sound, the country will blaze with excitement and enthusiasm from July till November, and vast meetings in scores will be arranged in exciting vehement speeches.

Few now living ever witnessed a Presidential contest which convulsed the country in every part as it will be stirred by the contest of 1872.

We renewedly urge, therefore, the Republicans of every State to begin at once their quiet preparations for the momentous struggle, by severally inducing; every one whom they can influence to take and read some Republican newspaper. The result will probably be determined by the fidelity or the lukewarmness wherewith this duty shall be fulfilled in the year of silent preparation already well begun. We shall surely triumph if the people shall be seasonably and generally enlightened with regard to the animus and purpose of our adversaries; while, should half of them be left in ignorance, we may be defeated.

LIVINGSTONE, the African traveler, describes an ingenius method by which the Africans obtain water in the desert:—The women tie a bunch of grass to one end of a reed about two feet long, and insert it in a hole dug as deep as the arm will reach then ram down the wet sand firmly around it. Applying the mouth to the free end of the reed, they form a vacuum in the grass beneath, in which the water collects, and in a short time to the mouth. It will be perceived that this simple but truly philosophical and effectual method might have been applied in many cases in different countries, where water was greatly needed, to the saving of life. It seems wonderful that it should have been now first known to the world, and that it should have been habitually practiced in Africa probably for centuries. It seems worthy of being particularly noticed, that it may no longer be neglected from ignorance. It may be highly important to travelers in our deserts and prairies, in some parts of which water is known to exist below the surface.

CONNECTICUT SAFE.

Connecticut sends greeting to the Republican party throughout the country, and bids it to hold fast to its principles and be of good cheer. In the next Presidential election New England, including New Hampshire, will be a unit in supporting these principles. We predict that the electoral vote of every New England state will be given to the Republican nominee.

A strenuous effort is now being made by the Democratic press to impress the public with the belief that Republicanism is rapidly on the wane, and destined to an overwhelming defeat in 1872. The same tactics were tried in 1863, as preliminary to the contest of 1864. Some Republicans were faint-hearted, and looked doubtfully upon the result; yet, when the time for action came, the people settled the question for the doubters, the "copperheads," and the rebels by nominating and triumphantly re-electing Abraham Lincoln. We anticipate a like result in 1872, and mean to work for it, and urge all Republicans to do the same.

This paper is committed to no party organization, as such, on account of its name, or even its antecedents; yet it is firmly committed to sound principles and good men, and will do its utmost to secure the political success of both. It advocates the principles of the Republican party because they represent freedom, equal justice, national unity, fidelity to the public credit, and good government. Such they were before the war; such they remained during the war; and to-day they fling the same banner to the breeze, and address the same arguments to the nation's ear. The people have not changed, and the Republican party has not faltered in its duty.

It is quite true that President Grant, as the representative of the party and head of the Government, has not pleased all Republicans. Divisions, local feuds, and sometimes even dangerous factions are the chronic conditions of all victorious parties, and will be until public men either become wiser or are less susceptible to the influences of personal ambition. No President can escape them. General Grant, not a trained politician, and perhaps not the most sagacious expert in dealing with this class of men, has just now ample occasion to recognize the fact that unification of counsel and action among Republicans is the imperative necessity of the hour. It is not less important that the Sumners, the Mortons, the Fentons, the Butlers, the Blaines, the Colfaxes, and other honored names trusted by Republicans, should recognize the same necessity, and seek to unite and harmonize the party in our common effort to meet the common foe. The President cannot afford to have a quarrel with any class of Republicans; and very certain is it that they cannot afford to quarrel with him. Peace among themselves is the interest and should be the study of all.

But has not the President made some mistakes? Undoubtedly he has; so did Abraham Lincoln, and so did Washington. Who has not done so? In the words of Judge Bingham, we say for the President that "no errors of Judgment, no mistakes of policy, no defects of administration in minor matters can blind the American people to the great fact that the President has never rested nor wearied in the performance of his pledge to secure to every citizen of the Republic, white and black, the full enjoyment of the rights guarranteed to him by the late amendments of the Constitution." As a soldier, General Grant has a fame of which the nation may well feel proud. In this capacity he rendered a service to the nation's life which grateful millions delight to honor. As chief magistrate, he has been true to the country and the principles of the party that placed him in power. He has sacredly kept his pledges. His conduct of the Government proves him to be a just and true man; entitled to the confidence, esteem, and affection of his fellow-citizens. In most respects his record as President is one of eminent success. More than two hundred millions of the public debt paid; more than ten millions of reduction in annual interest; some eighty millions of yearly reduction in taxes; the revival of the public credit; the recommendation and support of the Fifteenth Amendment; a discreet and pacific foreign policy; the general thrift and prosperity of the country under his Administration—these facts attest the wisdom and fidelity with which the President has discharged the duties of his high office.

Whether the President is right or wrong on the San Domingo question, and whether he shall be renominated next year or not, are not points which we care now to discuss. He certainly is right, and has done nobly in so many respects as to deserve the warmest tribute of honor. The malignant criticisms of the Democratic press, simply show the demoralization and shameless resorts of Democratic politicians. These purely partisan and lying judgments, posterity will rebuke and place the name of Ulysses S. Grant, the general and the President, among the brightest and best names of our military and political history. We are proud of the man and proud of his record as a whole; add, if he shall be renominated, we intend to do what we can to elect him. We say, with all our hearts, God bless President Grant!

JEFF. DAVIS.

MORE ABOUT HIS SPEECH IN SELMA—THE CAUSE OF THE REBELLION NOT ONE OF THE DEAD ISSUES WITH HIM.

We find in the Selma (Ala.) Press of Saturday last a more complete account of the reception given Jefferson Davis, in that city, than was contained in the Democratic papers published there. The Press, which is a Republican paper, describes the affair and reports Davis' speech, thus:

"Mr. Jefferson Davis, President of a Memphis life-insurance company, arrived in this city on Sunday night, from Montgomery. On Monday he received many calls, and in the evening he held quite a levee in the parlor of Keipp's Hotel, which was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. About 11 o'clock a brass band appeared on Alabama street, in front of the hotel, accompanied by a crowd of two or three hundred people. The band discoursed 'The Bonnie Blue Flag,' and on the cessation of the music, loud calls were made for 'Davis,' 'Davis.' In answer to the call the chief of the fallen Confederacy appeared on the balcony and addressed the crowd for about ten minutes in a strain of impressive eloquence which told with powerful effect upon his hearers. He commenced by complimenting, in general terms, the people of Alabama. He had always loved them, and now felt that he could rest in peace with them forever. They were bone of his bone, and flesh of his flesh. Alabama and his own State of Mississippi were yet one in principle, as they once had been one in Territory. Their people had sent forth their sons to battle on the same fields for their rights as States. But, asked the speaker with bitter emphasis, are they States now? Yet, proceeding in an exultant tone, he declared that State sovereignty, although defeated in the late struggle, will ultimately triumph; its day of success might not come in his time, but he would live and die in the belief that it would surely triumph. He declared that no people on earth had ever suffered as had the Southern people since the surrender of the Southern armies, and he loved them for the fortitude with which they had borne the oppression heaped upon them. He had always been willing to give his life for his people, and now, if any Yankee power wanted his blood to atone for any action of the Southern people, they could take it. On him the Government had done its worst, and for himself he did not care, but for the sake of the people whom he loved, he would forbear to express more fully the feelings of his heart. He never had asked pardon for what he had done, and never would, for he felt that he had never done any wrong. Mr. Davis concluded amid the applause of the crowd, which had loudly cheered the salient points of his speech. As he retired, the band struck up 'Dixie,' after which calls were made for Gen. Pettus and Gen. Morgan, but no response was accorded, and the crowd soon after separated. Mr. Davis looks to be in fine health."

Commenting editorially upon these uterances, the Press says:

"In his brief speech in this city on Monday night last, Jefferson Davis reiterated his faith in the doctrine of State sovereignty, and asserted his belief in its ultimate triumph. This is the first occasion of which we have any knowledge that Mr. Davis has, in public, touched upon the general political questions that agitate the country. It must be that the recent election in New Hampshire, the native State of his friend Pierce, produced an unusual degree of exultation in his mind. It may be that the expectation of a Democratic success in the Presidential contest of 1872 was strengthened and confirmed into confidence, and he would no doubt consider such a victory as the ultimate triumph of State sovereignty. It is well that the people all over the country should know that so distinguished a champion of State sovereignty as Jefferson Davis has not given up hope of the ultimate triumph of that cause. In its behalf great armies have been raised, a gigantic war waged, bloody battles fought, public debt has been piled mountain high, and widows and orphans created by hundreds of thousands—yet it did not succeed. But But now the chief who championed it, and who marshalled its forces, tells the people that he yet has confidence in its ultimate triumph. We commend these views to the consideration of that portion of the Northern Press and people which has been led to believe that the cause of the rebellion is a 'dead issue' in the minds of leading men at the South."

WHAT DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS MEANS.

We have seen no better, clearer or more forcible statement of the effect of Democratic success, than the few words on that subject spoken by Senator Morton of Indiana on the occasion of a recent serenade to that gentleman by his Indiana friends, then in Washington. He said:

Let us consider for a few moments tonight what would be the inevitable result of the success of the Democratic party should they elect a President and get the control of the National Government. In the first place the party can only succeed by carrying all the Southern States. In that case the Southern Democracy will constitute a majority of the party, and will, as a matter of course, dictate the policy of the party, and will control it in the past. Now I submit this question to intelligent men—Should the Southern Democracy come into power will they vote to tax themselves? Will they vote appropriations to pay pensions to Northern soldiers, and unless theirs at the same time are provided for? Does any intelligent man believe for a moment that when they are placed in power they would appropriate one cent. for pensions except upon the condition that the soldiers of the Confederate Army, their widows and orphans should be placed upon the same footing? [Cries of "No, no."] That would, perhaps, be the first effect—the first result of the success of the Democratic Party. Again, does any intelligent man believe that the Southern Democracy, when placed in power, will tax themselves, will make appropriations to pay the interest and the principal of the national debt unless there is some provision first made for the payment of their slaves? They invested their money, their property in the Confederate debt. They lost it. In addition to that they lost their slaves, and they will never tax themselves one cent, nor vote appropriations to the amount of one cent, to pay the national debt that was contracted for their subjugation, unless their debt is in some way provided for. What, then, will they ask at the hands of the Northern Democracy? What will they require? They will require that the United States shall assume and pay for the loss of their slaves, and we shall have added from fifteen hundred to two thousand millions to the national debt. Will the Northern Democracy consent to this? I answer that they will. If they can hold power upon no other terms, they will consent to that or almost any other proposition. Besides this, Northern Democrats are committed in principle and in declaration to the payment of their slaves. From the time that Mr. Lincoln issued his first proclamation, in 1862, the Democratic party has not failed to declare that slavery was unlawfully and unconstitutionally abolished. In legions of resolutions, in years of declaration, that party is committed to the doctrine that slavery is unconstitutionally abolished, and if it is brought into power it cannot avoid making payment for those slaves. The sentiments of the mass of the Democratic party in the work are all inclined to think that the large body of the Democracy would consent to pay the South for their slaves with more cheerfulness than they would consent to pay the national debt. This then would be the second result of the triumph of the Democratic party, paying the South for their slaves and adding two thousand millions to the national debt. Now, my friends, what will be the third result? It will be the disenfranchisement of the colored people and taking from them the right of suffrage. When these Southern States pass into the hands of the Democratic party, and when the National Government passes into the hands of that party, they will be able to disenfranchise the colored man in sixty days. It would be attempted now by some of the Southern States, if it were not for the restraining presence of a Republican President, the fact that the National Government is in the hands of the Republican party. But, if the State Governments and the National Government shall pass into their hands, they, having all the arms down there, having the military experience, would drive the colored men from the polls or compel them to vote their own disenfranchisement, and stripping the colored people of all their rights and reducing them, if not to slavery, to the condition of serfdom, would be the third result of having the Democratic party in power.

GEN. JACKSON ON PROTECTION.

In Niles' Register of April 24, 1830, vol. 38, page 173, is found a letter to W. Ramsey and T. Hartly Crawford, as follows:

WASHINGTON, April 5, 1830.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note this morning, presenting me with an ax and hatchet from the manufactory of Messrs. Dunlop & Madeira, in the borough of Chambersburg, which I accept with pleasure. These samples of the skill employed in that establishment fully illustrate the capacity of our citizens to contend successfully with the ingenuity and enterprise of other nations. They, in fact, refute the idea—too prevalent in several portions of the Union—that the policy of protection is, in every view of its effects, unequal to the anticipation of its friends.

I pray you to present those gentlemen my warmest wishes for their prosperity, and to accept for yourselves the renewal of the many instances of your friendship and regard. Your obedient servant, ANDREW JACKSON.

MESSRS. RAMSEY and CRAWFORD.

STATE NEWS.

—Work has begun on the new jail at Kittanning.

—A new Sunday paper is to be started in Pittsburg.

—Williamsport is called the city of Saw Dust.

—Huntingdon has nine churches—one to every 388 people.

—A. H. Bronson, of Titusville, is going to build a stable to cost $8,000.

—Mercer County supported 200 paupers during 1870.

—York had a genuine Prussian birthday entertainment.

—The Elmira Gazette says that ripe tomatoes have appeared in that city.

—The Republican County Convention of Mercer county will be held on the 5th of June.

—The Republicans of Indiana will hold their County Convention on the 5th day of June.

—There is a sassafras tree in Lycoming county measuring six feet seven inches in circumference.

—The expenses of York county last year amounted to $4 for every man, woman and child in the county.

—Capt. Breckenridge, of Centreville, has the honor of having shipped the first car of horses from the Butler depot.

—Pennsylvania has the largest assessed valuation of real and personal estate of any State in the Union—$1,634,219,936.

—Miss Annie E. Broomall, a daughter of ex-Congressman Broomall, of West Chester, has graduated an M. D. at the head of her class.

—The Swedes have a large and growing colony in Titusville; and are said to be among the most thrifty citizens of that young city.

—An iron ore vein about forty-inches in thickness has been discovered on the farm of George Try, near Adamsburg, Snyder county.

—Lancaster (Pa.) meditates a street passenger railway from the centre of the city to the adjoining village of Millersville, a distance of some four miles, with several rather heavy grades.

—A movement is on foot in Fayette county to organize a company of one hundred or more soldiers of the late civil war to emigrate to the West for the purpose of locating on the land recently granted by Congress.

A convention of iron manufacturers at Pittsburg recently, representing nearly all the rolling mills and nail factories of Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, advanced the price of iron one-half cent per pound and nails twenty-five cents per keg.

Dr. J. Newton Evans, of Hatborough, Montgomery county, has a cow which he purchased a year ago for $126. Since the 1st of May, 1870, she made 252 pounds of butter, besides supplying the owner's family with milk and cream.

—The wheat crop through the country is said to be quite promising. Our farmers have their oats sowed and are preparing corn ground as fast as the late cold spell will permit. Serious apprehensions are entertained that the fruit crop may be partially damaged.

—The Petroleum Centre Record gives the amount of oil held in tank on the first inst., by J. S. McCray, at 135,772 barrels. The total yield of the McCray farm from July 16, 1870, to April 1, 1871, has been 346,129 barrels, which at the present prsce of oil would net the owner about $13,500,000.

—A frightened steer made his appearance in a lager beer saloon at Lancaster the other day, and the gentlemen present suddenly ceased their quaffings and left, their countenances denoting great indignation at the appearance of so unwelcome an intruder.

—The wheat fields are looking finely, and the prospects for an excellent crop of wheat are quite cheering in every part of the country. The weather has been of the most favorable kind for the progress of vegetation generally. The fields are beginning to present a healthy, green appearance, and there will no doubt be an early harvest of wheat.

Mr. John W. Wallace, a farmer residing near Mendon, Westmoreland county, was waylaid near his home, recently, by three men, masked, and armed with revolvers, who demanded his money or his life. He chose the former, and was relieved of his pocket book, containing about $900. There seems to be no clue by which the villians can be apprehended.

—An exchange says, there is in Reading at this time a German dealer in rags, &c., who is the happy father of forty children. He is fifty-five years of age, and is now living with his third wife, who is thirty-seven years old. His first wife, in eight years and four months, had seventeen children, having had triplets on three occasions. Of the forty children, twenty-one were boys and nineteen girls, thirty-six of whom are dead.

—A foolish man, at Landisville, Lancaster county, nearly lost $900 in Government bonds by placing them in a window blind for safe keeping. He had previously cut off the coupons. A sale of a portion of his personal effects took place a few days since, and this blind was one of the articles sold. The purchaser saw some papers wrapped up in the blind, and gave them to his children to cut up without ever looking at them. Fortunately it was discovered after a $50 bond had been mutilated. The owner, Jacob Kline, was notified, and with commendable liberality gave the finder fifty cents for his trouble.

THE HEIGHT OF THE RIDICULOUS.

I wrote some lines once on a time
In wondrous merry mood,
And thought, as usual, men would say
They were exceeding good.

They were so queer, so very queer,
I laughed as I would die;
Albeit, in the general way,
A sober man am I.

I called my servant, and he came,
How kind it was of him,
To mind a slender man like me,
He of the mighty limb!

"These to the printer," I exclaimed,
And in my humorous way,
I added, (as a trifling jest,)
"There'll be the devil to pay."

He took the paper, and I watched,
And saw him peep within;
At the first line he read, his face
Was all upon the grin.

He read the next, the grin grew broad,
And shot from ear to ear;
He read the third; a chuckling noise
I now began to hear.

The fourth; he broke into a roar,
The fifth; his waistband split,
The sixth; he burst five buttons off,
And tumbled in a fit.

Ten days and nights with sleepless eyes,
I watched that wretched man,
And since I never dare to write
As funny as I can.

Masonry Against Drunkenness and Profanity.

A member of the Masonic Fraternity has handed us a circular addressed to the members of one of the Lodges of this city, enclosing the following letter from the Grand Master of Free and Accepted Masons in Ohio, on the importance of suppressing the vices of intemperance and profanity. It will be seen that the regard for the principles of morality maintained by this highly honorable fraternity consists not in mere profession, but is a matter of honest and earnest principle. This timely testimonial will nobly serve to promote the cause of social order and public morality. The Masonic order is composed of substantial and influential citizens whose influence in shaping public sentiment is very great. That the whole weight and power of this great institution is to be thrown against these and other vices in a matter of rejoicing to all the friends of good order and pure morality. The eloquent address of Grand Master Newcomb is worthy of careful attention, not only from Masons, but from all persons who desire to lead good lives and merit the respect and confidence of their fellow men:

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF F. & A. MASONS OF THE STTE OF Ohio, Toledo, O., Jan. 9, A. D. 1871

To the W. M., Wardens and Brethren of Lodge No.—, F. & M.:

BRETHREN:—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, begun and held in the city of Springfield, October 18th, A. L. 5870, the select committee to whom was referred so much of the M. W. Grand Master's address as related to intemperance and profanity, submitted a report, which was adopted unanimously, as follows:—That those vices have become alarmingly and painfully prevalent, even among the members of our ancient and honorable fraternity, marring the beauty and harmony of our lodges, producing discord, alienation and moral declension, at war with the very elementary principles on which the whole fabric of the Masonic Institution is based. Every Masonic brother, by the tenure of his profession, is bound to obey the moral law, and what said that law:

"Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain."

In the first step which a man takes, at the very entrance of the vestibule of the Temple, with what solemnity is he charged, among other duties, that which he owes to his God—never to mention His name but with that reverential awe which is due from a creature to his Creator, to implore His aid in all his laudable undertakings, and to esteem Him as the chief good. Again, as he ascends another step towards the inner Temple, what brilliant hieroglyphics arrest his attention, up towards which all eyes are turned in mute and reverend awe. And can even an Entered Apprentice profane that sacred name by imprecating its curse upon himself or upon his fellow man. How much more a Master Mason, whose feet have trodden the sanctum sanctorum, or Holy of Holies.

Drunkenness is a vice of most hideous mien, brutalizing the physical man and rendering him an object of contempt and detestation, mingled with pity.

Alas! how many, even of our brethren—generous, noble and gifted—have fallen victims to this insatiable vice, and are now moldering in dishonored graves, or hastening with trembling strides in the same broad road to destruction and eternal death, unhonored and unwept, save by the grief-stricken, heart-broken wife and helpless orphans, or the doting mother, on whose maternal breast he in youth pillowed his boyish head.

Your Committee deem it unnecessary to elaborate the evils resulting from these unmasonic vices, not only to the fraternity to which they were once honored and beloved members, but by their vicious example in the community where their vices are practiced, your committee recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the M. W. Grand Master be, and he is hereby authorized, and it is made his duty to issue a circular to be addressed to the Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction, enjoining the Masters of the several Lodges to action in these premises, by all the powers of moral suasion and brotherly kindness, to arrest the evil, and in the last resort, to cut off the persistently offending members, as cancerous excrescences of the body of Masonry.

BRETHREN:—Freemasonry is based upon the practice of virtuous principles, inculcating the highest standard of moral excellence; morality is its foundation and chief corner stone; every Mason should be a moral man; no member of our fraternity, however depraved or debased he may be, will for a moment dare to deny this fact, and yet how many, knowing their duty as Masons to be a moral law, practice what they profess. Our institution has suffered more through our own negligence in allowing so much immorality amongst our members than from all the anathemas that ever, from ignorance or fanatical bigotry, have been hurled against it; its enemies, through our own inconsiderate acts of imprudence and negligence, have been furnished the weapons to assail it, and we have thereby weakened the means of our own defense. A man addicted to deliberate profanity, intemperance, or any other licentious habit or vice, is not a proper person for reception into the fraternity, much less to be a member there of, unless he reforms immediately, for such a person may with just propriety be classed as an irreligious libertine—his habits would at least entitle him to that credit. An institution where the purest of morals are taught, where reverence to the High and Holy God is enjoined, should never be contaminated with impure and defiled elements. Good men and true revolt, at it, honor and honesty forbid it, and divine justice will sooner or later demand full retribution for all such delinqencies. We have nothing to fear from outside pressure; the powers of the Church and State, with the feeble breath of the fanatic, have been hurled, time and again, against our noble and time-honored institution, and yet, it occupies a stronger, a nobler and higher position throughout the world than ever before, and so it will ever continue to do if you will only be just, and practice outside of the lodge those noble precepts which we are taught in it. It must be apparent to the mind of a reflecting and considerate Mason that his obligations are of a most serious nature, that he has voluntarily, and of his own free will and accord, assumed duties and responsibilities he cannot—nay, he dare not—with impunity disregard. His duty to his God, his neighbor, his lodge and to himself and family, requires not only that he should obey it, but that he should use all means in his power to enforce obedience to that law from every member of his lodge. Every institution, and more particularly ours, is judged by its individual members. If any of our members are intemperate, profane or immoral men, our Order must to a great extent suffer for their actions. A great responsibility rests upon the Master of a Lodge. He should at least be possessed of all the cardinal virtues: temperance, fortitude, prudence and justice. How can the Master of a Lodge teach morality and virtue and expect his members to follow those teachings, when, perhaps, he is intemperate, profane, licentious and immoral in his habits? If so, he is false to his God, false to himself and his lodge, violating his obligation, violating the promises he made at his installation. He stands before his lodge a perjured man. Such a man is unworthy the name of a Mason, and ought not to be allowed to preside over a Lodge of Masons. He cannot expect obedience to our laws from his members if he violates those laws with impunity. A man ought not to be Master over others who is not Master over his own habits and passions. Such a Master would not be the proper person to enforce this edict of the Grand Lodge, unless he immediately reforms, and if he does not reform upon proper information being sent to me I will deem it my duty to immediately suspend him from office, as being unworthy and incapable of diffusing that light and knowledge due from a Master to his Lodge, and I hope no brother, through fear or favor, will hesitate to inform me if the Master of his Lodge is profane, intemperate, or guilty of any licentious or immoral habits. It is a duty every good man owes to himself and his Lodge to see that none is elected to office but good men and true. To the end that our institution does not suffer by the election to office of men who will bring censure and reproach upon our Order, it is necessary that we should commence at the Master of the Lodge. If he is a moral man he can command the respect and esteem of his brethren; if he is immoral, the first thing to be done will be to relieve him from office. And it is hereby made the imperative duty of the Masters of the several Lodges in our jurisdiction, and they are hereby ordered and enjoined to use all the powers of moral suasion, brotherly love and kindness to induce the erring brothers to reform; use all the arguments and entreaties in your power, to talk to him as you would to your own brother or your only son, as you would like to have others talk to you if you were in danger; point the brother who indulges in intoxicating liquor to the danger he is in, to the serpent he is handling, to the fire that is slowly but surely consuming his vitals, destroying his intellect, debasing his manhood. No man can indulge in the use of liquor and be safe. If he is a moderate drinker, as some call it, it only takes a little more time; the fangs of the serpent will soon strike home. No man of good sense will say that the use of liquor is a benefit to himself or family. Then why use it? Let each and every one of us who have the interest of Masonary at heart raise his warning voice against this foul monster, this demon intemperance, who is destroying its victims by thousands daily. How many of our brethren, otherwise noble, brave and generous, are slowly but surely hastening on to destruction by the aid of this most deadly poison! Brethren, you who indulge in the use of it, pause for a moment, reflect on what you are doing, ask yourself if the course you are pursuing will make you happy, will it reflect credit upon the institution, will it make your friends and family happy to know that one you love so dearly is hastening slowly but surely to a drunkard's grave. This may, to some of our brethren, seem a little too plain and strong language to use, but the disease requires a prompt and sure remedy; no other will restore the patient to health. And the Masters of the several lodges in our jurisdiction are ordered to enforce this edict of the Grand Lodge to the very letter, against any offending brother who is guilty of intemperance, profanity, or any immoral or licentious habits. The indulgence of those vices not only tends to bring disgrace and dishonor upon the guilty and offending brother, but it casts a stain upon, and he becomes a cancer on the body of Masonry, and it can only be removed by his immediate reformation or expulsion from the fraternity. One or the other must be done. It will not make any difference how high or how low a position the brother may occupy in community or in our Order. If guilty of violating the moral law, which is the very cement and support of our institution, he must suffer the penalty. Every Master and member of our Order in this State will be held to a strict account in the enforcement of this edict. If it should strike from the rolls of the several Lodges one-third or even half of its membership who will not conform to the law, let it be done. We are making too many members and too few Masons. Let every Master and member do their duty in this. I assure you I will not hesitate to do my part of the work in enforcing this law, even to arresting the charter of any Lodge in the State that fails to enforce this rule against every offending brother, and the suspension of the Master of any of the several Lodges who fails to comply with or to enforce this edict. The time has arrived that requires immediate and prompt action by all good Masons to arrest and stop those vices. It is hereby ordered that this circular be frequently read in the several lodges in this State, that none may plead ignorance of it. The law is plain and clear; but one course to pursue if the guilty will not immediately reform; it is the Master's duty to appoint a committee to prefer charges and expel, for unmasonic conduct, all who will not conform to the law, to the end that the honor and reputation of our fraternity may be firmly established, and the world at large convinced of its good effect.

Given under my hand, and the private seal of the Grand Master, the day and year above written.

ALEX. H. NEWCOMB,
Grand Master of Masons in Ohio.

Slurs on Women.

Of all the evils prevalent among young men, we know of none more blithing in its moral effects than to speak slightingly of the virtue of women. Nor is there anything in which young men are so thoroughly mistaken, as the low estimate they form of the integrity of women—not of their own mothers and sisters, but of others, who, they forget are somebody else's mothers and sisters. As a rule, no person who surrenders to this debasing habit is to be trusted with any enterprise requiring integrity of character. Plain words should be spoken on this point, for the evil is a general one, and deep-rooted. If young men are sometimes thrown into the society of the slightless or lewd women, they have no more right to measure all other women by what they see of these, than they would have to estimate the character of honest and respectable citizens by the developments of crime in our police courts. Let our young men remember that their chief happiness of life depends upon their utter faith in women. No worldly wisdom, no misanthropic philosophy, no generalization, can ever or weaken this fundamental truth. It stands like the record of God itself—for it is nothing less than this—and should put an everlasting seal upon lips that are wont to speak slightingly of women.

EXPRESS traveling in the interior of Russia is illustrated by the following incident: Four men had met with an accident in a village in the interior, and a physician from the nearest city was summoned by telegraph. A freight train was about to start for the village; but the physician was told that he could only travel by that train as an escort to living freight. This was enough; the physician immediately ran to a neighboring house, bought and paid for a rooster, and then was permitted to proceed upon his humanitarian errand, having fulfilled the requirements of the law."

From Pole to Pole.

A merchant; going home drunk, staggered against a telegraph pole.

"Beg your pardon," said he, "I hope no offense. It's rather dark, and the street is rather narrow, you see."

In a few moments he came in contact with another pole.

"Couldn't help it, sir," said he, lifting his hat; "I never saw such crooked lanes as we have here in this city."

Again he ran foul of a pole, this time with a force that sent him backward to the ground.

"Look here, neighbor, you need not push a fellow down because he happened to touch you; the road is as much mine as yours, and I have as much right to be here as you have, you old stick-in-the-mud.

He picked himself up, and made another effort to reach his home, but he soon came plump against another pole."

"I shan't make any more apologies," said he; "if you get into the middle of the street and stand in my way, that's your lookout, and not mine."

Proceeding on his journey again, and becoming angry and dizzy, he seemed to be entangled in an inextricable labyrinth of telegraph poles, which led him to make a general speech:

"Gentlemen you are not doing the fair thing. You do not give a man a chance. You run from one side of the street to the other, right in my way."

Just then he met a friend, and taking him by the hand, he said:

"There is a procession going along the street, and every man is drunk; they have been running against me all the way from the club. I knocked one of the fellows down, and one of the fellows knocked me down, and then a lot of them got around me, and I believe they would have licked me within an inch of my life if you had not come to the rescue. Let us get out of this street before the procession comes back, for they are all drunk."

The Young Widow.

A census taker, going his round, stopped at an elegant brick dwelling house, the exact locality of which is no business of ours.

He was received by a stiff, well dressed lady, who could well be recognized as a widow of some years' standing.

On learning the mission of her visitor; the lady invited him to take a seat in the hall. Having arranged himself into a working position, he inquired for the number of persons in the family of the lady.

"Eight, sir," replied the lady, "including myself."

"Very well—your age, madam?"

"My age, sir," replied the lady, with a piercing, dignified look. "I conceive it's none of your business what my age might be; you are inquisitive, sir."

"The law compels me, madam, to take the age of every person in the ward; it's my duty to make the inquiry."

"Well, if the law compels you to ask, I presume it compels me to answer. I am between thirty and forty."

"I presume that means thirty-five."

"No, sir, it means no such thing—I am only thirty-three years of age."

"Very well, madam," putting down the figures, "just as you say. Now for the ages of the children, commencing with the youngest if you please."

"Josephine, my youngest, is ten years of age."

"Josephine—pretty name—ten."

"Minerva was twelve last week."

"Minerva—captivating—twelve."

"Cleopatra Elvira—has just turned fifteen."

"Cleopatra Elvira—charming—fifteen."

"Angelina is eighteen, sir; just eighteen."

"Angelina—favorite name—eighteen."

"My eldest and only married daughter, sir, Anna Sophia, is a little over twenty-five?"

"Twenty-five, did you say?"

"Yes, sir. Is there anything remarkable in her being of that age?"

"Well, no, I can't say that there is; but is it not remarkable that you should be her mother when you were only eight years of age?"

About that time the census-taker was observed running out of the house, why, we cannot say. It was the last time he pressed a lady to give her exact age.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—No young lady ever looks so well to a sensible man as when dressed in a plain, neat, modest attire, with but little ornament about her. She looks then as though she possessed worth in herself, and needed no artificial rigging to enhance her value. If a young woman would spend as much time in improving her mind, training her temper and cherishing kindness, mercy, and other good qualities, as most of them do in extra dress and ornaments to increase their personal charms, she would at least be recognized, among a thousand, her character would be read in her countenance.

LAWYER—"How do you identify this handkerchief?"

Witness—"By its general appearance, and the fact that I have others like it."

Counsel—"That's no proof for I have got one just like it in my pocket."

Witness—"I don't doubt that, as I had more than one of the same sort stolen."

"Fodder For The Elephant."

A gentleman laid in bed one morning, when a friend stepping in said: "P., breakfast is coming on." "Let it come," exclaimed P., with a look of defiance, "I'm not afraid of it."

An old lady observing a sign over a tailoring establishment, bearing the inscription "Fountain of Fashion," exclaimed, "Ah, that must be the place where the squirts come from."

"Vill you dake sumding?" asked a German teetotaller of a friend while standing near a tavern.

"I don't care if I do," was the reply.

"Vell, den, let's dook a valk."

"I am like Balaam," said a dandy, on meeting a pretty girl in a narrow passage "stopped by an angel!"

"And I am like the angel," said she, "stopped by an ass."

A married man in Alton, Ill., attempted to show a young girl what bliss there was in married life. The girl hit him such a whack over the head with a bed screw that it was two days before he came to his senses.

A veteran was relating his exploits to a crowd of boys, and mentioned having been in five engagements.

"That's nothing," broke in a little fellow, "my sister Sarah's been engaged eleven times."

A Youthful Michigander tried to learn to smoke, the other day, in the secluded recesses of the paternal barn. As soon as the foundation stones get cooled off enough his father will begin building another one.

A fast youth hired a horse to attend a funeral.

"Don't drive him too fast," said the keeper of the livery stable. "I may as well kill him," was the reply, "if he can't keep up with the funeral."

A New Hampshire man, when asked to give his consent to the marriage of his daughter, turned with a beaming countenance to the applicant and answered frankly: "Yes, yes; and don't you know some likely young man who will take the other?"

An Englishman had a large family, to which additions were constantly making. One day one of his little boys was thus interrogated:

"John, how many brothers and sisters have you got?"

"I don't know," answered the boy; "I hain't been home since morning."

An exchange has the following characteristic prayer form the heart of a little boy. He had evidently had a little unpleasantness with Aunt Effie:

"Please God, bless papa and mamma, —and—and—and if you're a mind to you may bless Aunt Effie; but I don't much care."

A young lady at Indianapolis was endeavoring to impress upon the minds of her Sunday school scholars the sin and terrible punishment of Nebuchadnezzar; and when she said that for seven years he ate the grass like a cow, she was astonished by a little girl who asked, "Did he give milk?"

"Father," said a four-year-old child, "I think you ain't wise."

"Why, child?"

"Because you have brought that baby here when mother is sick, and you have to get a woman to take care of it!"

"Go rock the cradle, Lucy, and let us hear no more of your jabber."

Among the gifts to a newly married pair at a town in New Jersey, the other evening, was a broom sent to the lady, accompanied with the following sentiment:

"This trifling gift accept from me,
Its use I would commend;
In sunshine use the brushy part,
In storms the other end."

A Kansas City editor, whose washing and ironing were entrusted to a heathen Chinee, has met with a big scare. He takes on as follows:

"They sent home with our washing yesterday, a thing that branches off in two ways a little below the top, like a railway junction, and has puckered frills edged with 'tatting' on each end of the divide. We don't know what it is, and we're a poor, friendless man with only our virtue, and none but villains would seek to injure that."

"Wife, I am shortly to leave you—the doctor tells me I can live but a few hours at most. I shall soon be in heaven."

"What! you soon be in heaven? You! You'll never be any nearer heaven than you are now, you old brute."

"Dolphus, Dolphus," hoarsely growled the old man, "Dolphus! bring me my cane and let me larrup the trollop once more before I die."

In a quiet town in Maine, a few Sabbaths since, there occurred an incident in the Methodist church, which it will perhaps do no harm to relate. A friend of the settled minister having officiated during the morning, as is customary, some of the members took occasion after the discourse to exhort the brethren, or say a word of encouragement. Among others was the pastor's wife, who stated substantially that she believed her days were numbered—that she should soon be "home," and at rest with those who had gone before, whom she should soon meet, &c. Her husband who occupied the pulpit during these remarks, sat rubbing his hands, apparently with great satisfaction, and shouting,—

"Amen!" "Glory to God!" A broad smile was seen on the faces of that congregation.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also peoplewho, instead of traveling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest prices.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The originator of this wonderful medicine claims to have discovered and combined in har mony more of Nature's most sovereign medicinal properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer, in the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and hundreds of the best physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch Pimple or Eruption. Mercurial Disease, Mineral Poisons, Syphilitic and Venereal Diseases, and their effects are eradicated and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, scald head, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful purifying and invigorating medicine. For "Liver Complaint," Bilious Disorders and Habitual Constipation, it has produced hundreds of perfect and permanent cures where other medicines had failed.

The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Government Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. This medicine is Sold by Druggists at $1,00 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Sole Proprietor, at his Chemical Laboratory 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents. That, on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydrick to me known as such, and being duly sworn deposed as follows: "That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparations or medicines known as Dr. Maggiel's Pills and Salve, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITRE, Notary Public,
[L.S.] 14 Wall St. New York.

June 1st, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue, D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
NEW YORK, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident:

NEW YORK, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal: I tried Maggiel's Salve and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and anybody can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2d Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Greeck St.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail."

I Have over 200 such Testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS,

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

THE KU-KLUX.

THE ASSASSINATION OF MR. JOHN Q. DICKINSON BY THE KU-KLUX IN FLORIDA—FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Referring to the atrocious and cold-blooded murder of Mr. John Q. Dickinson by the Ku-Klux, while passing from his office to his home in Marianna, Jackson county, Fla., on Monday evening, 3d inst., the Tallahassee Sentinel says:

His dead body was found the next morning. Thirteen buckshot had entered his side, and a pistol ball penetrated his heart. To give color to the suspicion that he might have been murdered for the sake of robbery, it is said that his pockets had been rifled. Captain Dickinson was a native of Rutland, Vermont, and served during the war as lieutenant and assistant quartermaster in the 7th Regiment of Vermont Volunteers. In the year 1868 he was appointed Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau and stationed at Marianna, and after the discontinuance of the bureau was appointed clerk of the Circuit Court for Jackson county, which office he held at the time of his death. Captain Dickinson was about thirty-five years of age, a graduate of Dartmouth College, and had just been admitted to the bar, and with his known talents, his friends, with reason, looked forward to a brilliant career for him, if he were permitted to live. His assassination, however, was not unexpected to him nor his friends. He was the last remaining white Republican in that county; and the opposition were extremely desirous to get rid of him. His conduct all the time was guarded and prudent, and he was noted for gentlemanly deportment. He had from time to time, owing to his being an earnest Republican and a leader of the party in Jackson county, been threatened with death, but having right and freedom as his motto, bid defiance to his enemies and died at his post. He was a good citizen and officer, and all that could be said against him by his bitterest political enemies, was that he was a Republican. Thus one by one are Republicans stricken down by the assassin's bullet.

OUR COTTON CROP.

After all that has been said and written on the indispensable requisite of slave labor for the full development of the material resources of the Southern States, the importance and value of the great staple (cotton) has been rather enhanced than diminished by its abolition. It is not necessary to go far for proofs of this fact. The crop for 1870, it has been estimated, will foot up four and a quarter millions of bales, which, with a single exception, is the largest on record in the history of the Cotton States. We do not consider that these figures, large as they are, represent the highest development of which the Southern soil is capable. On the contrary, as new sections of country are being opened up to cultivation, an improved system of agriculture introduced, and intelligent white labor substituted for that of the negro, it would be no extravagant estimate to put up the cotton crop, ten years hence, as high as a thousand million bales. It is really surprising what a change has come over the spirit of the Southern people during the past three or four years. Small planters are increasing in numbers in every direction, and as they are directly interested in their crops, work hard to improve the soil and to bring it up to the maximum yield; whilst even the large planters, stimulated to exertion by the example of their more humble and more industrious neighbors, work on their plantations as they never did of yore.

This improvement in the cotton yield is already seen in the moderate prices now ruling for cotton fabrics here in the North. Very handsome dress calicoes are now within the reach of all, at ten to twelve cents a yard, which is a boon to millions throughout the country who cannot afford the costly silks and other fabrics of foreign lands. Let the work go on as it now is. Let the Southern people lay aside the fanaticism of former years, and encourage the influx of Northern capital, enterprise and labor, and the Southern States will maintain their importance in the glorious galaxy of our Union, and have reason to bless the day when the curse of slavery was removed from her soil and the snake of rebellion crushed out of life.—Price Current.

THE COAL TROUBLES.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., April 15.—It is the general belief to-night that nothing will be accomplished by the meeting of the general board of arbitration to take place here to-morrow. The expectation is that it will be necessary to hold a second meeting before any definite result can be arrived at.

The miners in the various districts voted last night on the arbitrators appointed by the General Council. The result has not yet been learned, except in Carbon county, which rejected Pritchard, who was opposed to arbitration, and elected another person in his place.

All believe that resumption will be general throughout the region by the first of next month.

SCRANTON, March 16.—There are few new developments here in relation to the suspension. The offer of the men of the three large companies to resume at $1.25 per diamond car has not yet been responded to by the companies, but they will receive their answer to-morrow. Their offer will be rejected, and this will leave the companies and men as far apart as ever. Rumors prevail here that the companies will offer protection to those of the men who desire to resume at eighty-six cents. But little credence is given to these reports. The executive board of the W. B. A. for Luzerne county meets at Wilkesbarre on Tuesday.

The following is from the Anthracite Monitor of Saturday, the organ of the Workingmen's Beneficial Association:

At last light seems to break in upon us in the coal regions, and some tangible prospect of an amicable settlement of our troubles seems to present itself. The General Council of the M. & L. B. A., which has been in session during the early part of this week, has accepted arbitration as a solvent for the perplexing and complicated trouble between them and their employers. And if now they can meet together in a fair and conciliatory spirit we may expect an early resumption of work at all our collieries.

We think that the council has acted wisely in accepting this mode as a way to settle the difficulty, and they have doubtless gained, by the course they have adopted, an addition to the public sympathy they had hitherto possessed. And while wisely refusing to commit the association to any permanent arbitration, without the consent of their constituents, the members of the council have accepted it for the time being and for the present trouble. On the way in which the operators meet the men in this first attempt will, doubtless, depend its permanent adoption for the future. We therefore sincerely hope all attempts at low and dishonorable scheming will be ignored on both sides, and that an honest desire will pervade the minds of the parties most directly interested to arrange matters on a basis that will insure harmony and good will in the future.

The markets remain much as last week, coal ruling at a high figure, and although some have prophesied that in four or five weeks after work has been resumed by all the regions it will come down as low as before the suspension, we cannot believe it, for it is against all previous experience that such a thing should happen; and if it should, we should be inclined very much to think that some deep trickery was at the bottom of it.

GALE IN THE WEST.

BUILDINGS BLOWN DOWN IN DES MOINES, IOWA.

(By Telegraph to the Phila. Press.)

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 9.—The most terrific wind storm that ever visited this locality occurred to-day. The wind commenced blowing from the southwest at about 8 a. m. and continued with great damage to property, unroofing and blowing down buildings, uprooting trees, tearing up sidewalks, and scattering fences and signs in all directions. The damage is estimated at $20,000. No person was severely injured as far as known.

A METHODIST CHURCH UNROOFED IN KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH, April 9.—A severe gale swept over the city yesterday, commencing at 4 a. m., and lasting until noon. Houses were unroofed, together with the Methodist church. The Eagle woolen mills were entirely demolished. No lives were lost. At Pomeroy, sixteen miles south of here, the storm was quite severe. Dwellings were crushed by falling trees, and some of the inmates were injured.

CARS BLOWN FROM THE TRACK IN MISSOURI.

ST. JOSEPHS, Mo., April 9.—A heavy gale prevailed in this city and along the line of the St. Josephs and Denver City Railroad, on Saturday. At Cameron and here several houses were blown down, and some freight cars standing in exposed places near this city were blown from the track.

At Weston Mo., a number of dwellings were blown over, and one man was killed.

FRANCE.

PARIS, April 16—A. M.—The Communists report that Fort d'Issy repulsed successive assaults of the Versaillists on Friday and Saturday with severe losses to the assailants.

General Dombrowski attacked the government forces at Neuilly yesterday, and it is claimed that he took four hundred prisoners. The engagement was contined throughout the entire night.

The batteries on the heights of Trocadero have opened fire on Fort Valerien, which replies with vigor. General Dombrowski enforces strict discipline among the National Guards, and is doing much to render all branches of the military service more efficient.

LONDON, April 16—Evening.—Despatches from Versailles deny that the insurgents took 400 prisoners yesterday, and declare that no important military events have occurred. They say that the insurgents in the forts waste their ammunition by firing at night to no purpose. On Saturday night, although they kept up a continual cannonade, only one Versaillist was wounded.

PARIS, April 16—[Special to the New York World].—Desperate fighting, resulting in victories for the Commune, is reported. Five consecutive attacks were made on Fort Vanves and were repulsed with great slaughter. The losses of the government troops were dreadful. At Neuilly the combat is fierce, but the Communists gain ground steadily, and their hopes are now raised to the highest pitch.

PARIS, April 16, Evening, via London, April 17, 3.30 A. M.—General Cluseret, in his official report to the Commune, says Fort Vanves was attacked five times in succession on Saturday. The cannonade and musketry firing was continued all of to-day.

An obstinate struggle is going on at Neuilly, where the ground is disputed inch by inch.

A detachment of government troops on the island of Grande Jatte has escaped.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID Extract Catawba GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubard and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick Or Nervous Headache, Costiveness Etc. Purely Vegetable, Containing No Mercury, Minerals Or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated. from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS, OF DISSIPATION, ETC.,

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflamation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLB'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restore the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to undounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidences of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 80,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

EVERY FAMILY USES IT.

NONE CAN DO WITHOUT IT.

Be sure that the wrapper has on it the cut of Mrs. Fogy and Mrs. Enterprise, and that each bar, is stamped with the name of the inventor and originator, J. B. DOBBINS, as none other is genuine.

Like everything of great value, it is extensively counterfeited, and the market filled with false and worthless Electric Soaps, none worth house-room, and dear even if given away.

The finest American Toilet Soap, fully equal to the French, made by a French soapmaker in the same manner as the French soaps are made, and sold at one-fourth their price, is

DOBBINS'

TRIPLE SCENTED TOILET SOAP.

No Toilet Table is complete without it.

The Best Emollient in the Market.

It is given the preference at every watering place in the country, and is for sale everywhere.

PLEASE ASK FOR IT.

Don't be put off with any cheap common soap. Try it, and see how much BETTER it is than we say.

The Great Medical Discovery!

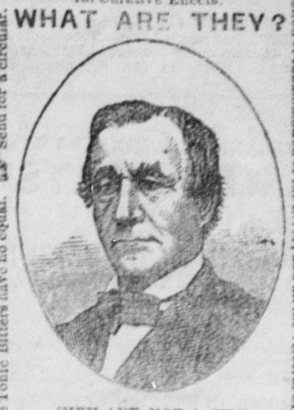
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?



They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Wednesday Morning, Abril 19, 1871.

THE SPADE.

Give me the spade, and the man that can use it;
A fig for the man with his soft silken hand.
Let the man who has strength never stoop to abuse it;
Give it back to the giver—the land, boys, the land!
There's no bank like the earth to deposit your labor;
The more you deposit the more you will have.
If there's more than you want you can give it to your neighbor;
And your name shall be dear to the true and the brave.

Give me the spade, our ancestor's glory,
That fashioned the field from the bleak, barren moor;
Let us speak of its praise with ballad and story,
While 'tis brightened with labor, not tarnished with gore.
It was the sword that won our best battle,
Created our commerce, extended our trade;
Gave food to our wives, our children and cattle,
But the queen of all weapons—the spade boys, the spade.

Give me the spade, there's magic about it,
That turns the bright soil into bright shining gold.
What would our fathers have done, boys, without it,
When the land lay all bare and the north wind blew cold?
Where the tall forests stood, and the wild beasts were yelling;
Where our stout hearted ancesters shrank back afraid,
The wheat-stack is raised, and mankind claim a dwelling:
Then hurrah for our friend—the spade, boys, the spade.

Young Fruit Trees.

The most vital period in the life of a fruit tree is during the first 3 years of its youth. It is then only that it can be properly trained, easily managed and well protected. If as many undoubtedly are, they are crammed hastily into small holes dug in hard soil left without manure, permitted to be overrun with grass or weeds, or what is still worse, the ground persistently cropped with grain, is it at all surprising so many trees fail, and so many orchards are entirely starved? Treatment like this, is nothing but throwing away capital, with absolutely no prospects of returns. If on the other hand, a few trees are well planted in good deep rich soil, well pruned yearly, and kept clear of insects and worms it takes a few years to bring them into a productive condition, and ten trees well cared for will yield five fold more than one hundred indifferently planted.

The contrast between thrifty and unthrifty trees, stares at us everywhere we go. We are astonished, after all the exhortations of the press to cultivators "to take care of their fruit trees," to see how little heed the great mass give to it.

Young trees must be well planted. Plant less rather than more; always manure highly, and once each year examine the trunk and bark for worms. Precautions like these, demanding only a few moment's time to each tree, are the Alpha and Omega of successful fruit culture. Care for your trees as well as for your children, and it will never be said of you for your own hands will pluck the fair fruit that never would come if the trees had been left to themselves.—Turf, Field and Farm.

"He planted for his heirs,"

The Garden.

Nothing about the farm pays better than a judiciously planted and well cultivated garden. Unlike the fields which make up a farm—many of them quite remote from the dwelling—the garden is a home institution, easily accessible at all times where the odd hours between regular farm labor may be most healthfully and profitably employed.

Some farmers start well in the spring, pay proper attention to the preparation of the soil in the garden; plant a commendable variety of seeds, and then act as though the garden work was finished for the season. What is the result? The seed planted germinates in due time and so do those of weeds, and the latter being quicker of growth, overshadow the others and steal the nourishment necessarily essential to the perfection of them.

The farmer is disgusted, and jumps at the conclusion that the garden does not pay. In this he is right as respects his own, but wrong as to the garden itself. With proper and timely cultivation the garden would have paid many fold better than any other equal section of his plantation. What the garden wants is a daily dressing, and being so ready of approach morning and evening, there is no excuse for the neglect with which it is sometimes treated. An hour's labor, morning and evening in the garden, will pay twofold more than the same amount expended elsewhere on the farm.

To Destroy Red Ants.—The following receipt is said to be invaluable for destroying such pests as red ants and other insects: Take six or seven drops of oxalic acid (which is in a liquid state during the warm weather), and mix it with a small teacup half full of melted lard, and set this preparation wherever the ants are troublesome, and they will disappear in a very short space of time.

Some Definitions.

The "Journal and Messenger" tells us of a theological student who sent the following as his contribution to a festival of the choir of the Newport Baptist church:

What is a slur? Almost any remark one singer makes about another.

What is a rest? Going out of the choir for refreshment during sermon time.

What is singing with an understanding? Marking time on the floor with your foot.

What is a symphony? Flirting with the soprano singer behind the organ.

What is a staccato movement? Leaving the choir in a huff when one is dissatisfied with the organist.

What is a swell? A professor of music who pretends to know all about the science, while he cannot conceal his ignorance.

What is a turn? When one singer is discharged to make room for another.

How do you produce a discord? Praising one lady's singing at the expense of a rival who overhears you.

What is a pause? When the organ boy gets asleep when the choir is ready to sing.

What is a flat? A singer who supposes himself or herself indispensible to the success of the choir.

How to secure a quartette? Get two good-looking unmarried gentlemen for basso and tennor, and there will be no trouble in securing soprano and alto.

All Right.—A man passing up street late last evening saw some one leaning against the door of a church, and on looking more closely observed that he was in the act of taking a drink from a bottle. On seeing the man approach and probably thinking him to be a patrolman, the fellow reeled around, and taking hold of the door handle said:

"S'oll right, sir, board here, s'r, and allus tak'r drink 'fore I go to bed."

The man called his attention to the fact that the building on which he leaned for support was a church, and suggested that he had best go home before the bottle had him in the gutter; whereupon tipsy corked his bottle and said discouragingly:

"This the'r third time 'f been mistaken, and' ef I find many more meetin'-houses that look like my boardin' place, bottle won't hold out. Glad you ain't p'leceman, s'r."

A thirsty Vermonter hitched his horse to a freight car standing on a side track while he proceeded leisurely towards a neighboring saloon in quest of "tanglefoot." Meantime the freight train moved on, and when the Vermonter returned his team was missing. Proceeding up the track he came to a wrecked wagon, a wheel here, a spoke there, and soon after stumbled upon the poor horse quite dead, the animal having been choked to death ere the halter parted.

PAY UP.—We have on our books for subscription, job work and advertising, over three thousand dollars ranging in amounts from $2 to $30, and we want it. Of course this does not refer to those who have paid up. Good pay, and a good paper must and will follow. Fact gentlemen. Do not wait for the April court. Come now, or send it by mail. But if not sooner do not fail to call with the needful at the April court.

REPORT of Milesburg High School, for the month ending April 7th 1871, F. W. Campbell, Teacher. Whole number in attendance for the month 28; per cent of attendance for month, 92; Spelling, 28; Reading, 28; Writing, 28; Arithmetic, 28; Geography, 28; Grammar, 28; Composition, 28; U. S. History, 25; Physiology, 13; and Algebra, 7. The following is a correct list of the number of words missed in spelling 1,125 words in the National Speller, commencing on page 123. Class A, Clayton Parsons, 2; Howard Moore, 4; Jimmy Ryman, 8; Katie Green, 5; Addie Tonner, 5; Rachel Moore, 13; Lillie Adams, 16; Margie McGhee, 20; A. G. Shope, 22; Lida Irvin, 26.

A GOOD WIFE.—An exchange can always tell what sort of a woman a man marries by the way he treats the printer. If he gets a common wife he forgets the printer altogether. If he gets a tolerable good wife, he will send in the notice of his marriage. If he gets a very good one, he will send the printer a slice of cake accompanying the notice. If he gets an extra good one he will send a greenback with the notice. If he gets a glorious, angelic creature, all smiles and affection and goodness, he is sure to send the printer a gold or silver dollar with the notice of his happiness. No good wife will allow her husband to owe for his paper, and if the worse-half does not attend to these things, it is a clear case of deception, because a man who wont pay for his paper will deceive his wife, and we have our opinion of such.

FOR THE LADIES.—Mrs. Nannie K. Dare, in McClain's Block, opposite the Bush House, having just returned from Philadelphia, with one of the largest and finest assortment of Millinery Goods, Notions, &c., ever brought to Bellefonte, she takes pleasure in extending a cordial invitation to all wishing anything in her line. Her entire stock is new including all the latest styles, and has been selected with the greatest care. Mrs. Dare is a lady of good taste, and will furnish all who may favor her with their custom, with none but the best and latest styles of Hats, Bonnets, and everything in the millinery line. Feeling confident that she can render entire satisfaction as to goods and prices, we bespeak for her a liberal patronage. See advertisement in another column.

THE Bush House, Bellefonte, has been completely changed and greatly improved since Frank McClain, its architect, has assumed proprietorship. The bar, billiard room and water-closets have been removed to the basement and fitted up in the best of style, and a gentlemen's reading room attached to the office. The old billiard room has been changed into a fine assembly and hop room. A bridge has been constructed across Spring creek to the stables.—Teams can now drive to the stables witout fear of cars or railroad. Ample room is provided for any number of horses and wagons.

The Bush House boasts of an excellent table and moderate bills. We advise our friends attending court next week, and the traveling public generally to give it a trial, and our word for it, you will go away well satisfied, with both the treatment and the charges.

For the REPUBLICAN.

MR. EDITOR—As whatever indicates progress in educational affairs, is of interest to all who know anything of the value of learning, I herewith, present you a note of an Exhibition which it was my fortune to attend at School No. 5 Spring township, April 14th 1871, Miss Jodie Weaver of Bellefonte, teacher.

At 6½ o'clock the house was well filled, and, for want of room inside, well surrounded by friends of the scholars, young, old, great and small, and the exercises were opened by singing "Daisies White" which was followed with a speech on "Labor" by Miss Katie Rothrock.

After these followed songs entitled, "Fairy," "Birdie's Ball," Bobolinkum." "Tardy Scholar," "Vacation Song" and others, between which were spoken by different scholars; "Charge of Light Brigade," "Old Clock on Stairs," "Color Bearer," "Why should the Sprit of man be Proud," "The Blue Sky," "Be Patient" and the singing of the Grand Divisions "Round and round" by the smaller scholars.

Now followed a spelling exercise, in which many as is the custom, joined with the scholars. This is a very commendable feature in our country schools where properly conducted, as it was on this occasion. Words were pronounced by Miss Woods and Miss Jodie.

A prize of 50 cents was awarded to Master Martin Kane for excelling in this exercise. The whole wound up with an able address by that staunch friend of education in Spring township, Mr. David Rothrock. No doubt each one felt that he had spent not only a pleasant but also a profitable hour and that he would enjoy it all over again.

WARNER'S GREAT PACIFIC MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS, will exhibit in Bellefonte, Friday April 28th. There is a sort of a fascination about a canvas show that we cannot exactly understand, but this we do know, that all first class Menageries and Circuses never fail to attract an audience in this town and more particularly when a long line of handsomely decorated cages, are drawn through our streets, containing the hidden mysteries, the growling wild beasts and the noisy birds and chattering monkeys—and the entire cortege preceeded by an elegant golden charriot, from which emenate the bewitching strains of the splendid band, with a huge Elephant, the innocent looking Camels and harmless Dromedaries rolling carlessly along—just enough to satisfy the public that they really have a first class exhibition in their midst—just such a one as Warner & Co's., Great Three Hundred men and horse power Pacific Menagerie and Circus, composed as it is of all the beasts in the annimal kingdom, and the largest Elephant ever imported, standing eleven feet four inches high, weighs twelve thousand four hundred and eighty pounds, and is one hundred and thirty years of age, the greatest living curiosity in America to-day, together with the finest Equestrain, Gymnastic and Acrobatic talent on this continent. And to quote from a lecture of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. "I would be sorry if I were so old, that I could not enjoy a fine exhibition of gymnastics, and he that cannot, is growing old, even if he be not but thirty years of age." We advise everybody to go. Don't forget the date.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE for May has been received, and after a thorough perusal, we do not hesitate to say that it is one of the best magazines, now in circulation. The stories, sketches and poetry, are excellent and in every way just what the people desire and appreciate. One of the most interesting adventures in this number, is the story called "Caught by Mosely" by James Franklin Fitts, and will be read with interest by soldiers, "Taking Summer Boarders" is a choice production, and the "Widow Higgins and her Daughters," would not fail to make "Old Sobersides" grin. Terms of "Ballou's Magazine" are only $1,50 per year, or 15 cents per copy, or clubbed with "The Monthly Novelette" for $3,00 for the two. Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston, are the publishers.

GLAD OF IT.—Isaac L. Myers, than whom no better soldier ever shouldered a musket, has, since the war, invented a "Buggy Brake" and obtained a Patent for the same, which surpasses anything we have ever seen of the kind. We have not space to describe the invention in full but we have studied it sufficiently, to be safe in recommending it to the people of Centre county, as well as to the people of the whole State. It is indeed a great affair as well as a great saving to every man who owns a buggy, carriage or spring vehicle of any kind. Mr. Myers is a first class man, and we wish him great success.

As a remedy for Bronchial Affections and Chronic diseases of the Lungs, nothing ever before discovered equals Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext or Golded Medical Discovery. It is also a great blood purifier and restorative tonic, and cures Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions on the face, making the complexion clear and fair. Sold by druggists.

For the REPUBLICAN.

WARREN, OHIO, Apr. 5, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—A friend in your county having sent me a copy of your valuable paper, I felt as though I ought to write you to let you know with what pleasure I perused its ample columns.—This I did with more interest, from the fact that your city ('situate on a hill, and surrounded with hills') is my native place, and how vividly memory carried me back to the days of my youth when I used to fish for those speckled beauties and bathe in your limpid streams—what hallowed thoughts come over me when I think of Spring Creek and Logan's Branch.

"In dreams I revisit their thrice lovely shore,
And with ecstacy listen to their waterfalls roar."

The old Academy, too, on the top of the hill—what wonderful associations are connected with it. Here, it was, I received my limited education under such teachers as McBride, Cross, Armstrong, and others, whom memory fails to bring up—all of whom were good teachers in their day, but who, if living now, would be considered "rather old foggish." They did not fall for one thing—to carry out Solomon's admonition about the "sparing the rod and spoiling the child." None were spoiled for want of it under their rule—well does the writer remember the old Irish gentleman, Cross, with his ruffled shirt, who used to punish scholars by standing them on one foot like a goose, with a boulder elevated in one hand above their heads, and every time the elbow would crook the least bit, crack, crack, would go the whip. At one time, when the writer was undergoing this kind of punishment the boulder either accidentally or otherwise, slipped from his grasp, and, falling on the floor, bounded on to the foot of the teacher, and you may well believe there was some hopping around for a little while, and then, oh, then! what a whipping this poor fellow took. Marks and welts were on his back for months. So severe was it that many of the young ladies left the school-room in disgust, and never returned again.—At another time, this same teacher, on his way to school one day, came across some of his scholars peeping into the curtains of an animal show in the yard of the hotel—where the Brockerhoff block now stands—and amongst the rest was one Samuel Williams, (who afterwards became a brother typo), and, the teacher, in his zeal for the welfare of his pupils, undertook to take him along to school; but Sam was not in a leading humor, and in less time than you can spell "jack," he tore the old gentleman's ruffles off amidst the gibes and geers of the crowd. But enough, least I weary your patience; but let me say right here, that I learned more with this same teacher than any other to whom I went.

Yours, &c.,
B.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE ASSOCIATION.—The Tenth Anniversary of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps will be celebrated in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the 16th of May, 1871, pursuant to a resolution adopted at the meeting of the State Association, at Lock Haven, in 1870.

The District Association in Philadelphia have engaged Horticultural Hall on Broad street, for the day and evening of the 16th. An Oration will be delivered by Gen. Wellington H. Ent, of Columbia county, and a Banquet will be given in the afternoon, and a Grand Re-union Ball in the evening.

A cordial invitation is extended to members of the old Division throughout the State, to be present on the occasion.

Delegations intending to participate, will please report, in advance, the number who will be present, to the undersigned.

JOHN H. TAGGART,
Secretary Penna. Reserve Association, of Philadelphia County.

Address—Office of the Sunday Morning Times, Philadelphia.

CORNER LOAFERS.—The following is a supplement to an act passed in the New Jersey Assembly, and would be an admirable law in Pennsylvania:

"It provides that any person or persons who shall loiter or assemble on the streets, at the corner of any village or township of the State, being under the influence of intoxicating liquors, or who not being under such influence shall indulge in and utter bad and offensive or indecent language, or shall address or make audible any offensive remarks or comments on ladies passing along such streets or public places, or shall obstruct or interfere with any person or persons lawfully being in and upon such streets or places, shall be deemed and adjudged to be disorderly, and may be committed for any term not exceeding thirty days."—Ex.

Throughout the county our schools are looking as if "Excelsior" were the motto, for which we may thank our live county Supt. Magee, and his efficient corps of teachers.

We are glad to know that Miss Jodie will open a subscription school at No. 5 shortly after the close of her free school. It would be well if subscription schools could be sustained all over the county during the summer months—four months of school is not enough for any mind in a year.

Truly Yours,
AGATE.

WEST BRANCH CAMP MEETING.

OFFICE W. B. C. M. ASSOCIATION,
LOCK HAVEN, April 6, 1871.

The W. B. C. M. Association sends its annual circular to its friends and patrons, confident that its past services warrants the expectation that it will continue to be regarded with favor. With the knowledge gained by experience, and the perfection of plans that have been tried, with such improvements as have been adopted, the directors feel justified in the promise that those who come to the next camp meeting, will be satisfied with the arrangement made for their comfort and profit.

Influenced by the desire to build up and establish this camp meeting as a permanent institution, neither pains nor expense will be spared in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With abundance of good water, pure air, fine shade, comfortable houses, and every facility for uninterrupted worship, in all kinds of weather, and in addition, good and cheap boarding and table supplies, postal and telegraph accomodations, such police arrangements as will insure good order, and an earnest determination on the part of officials and employees to please, there would seem to be but little wanting to meet any reasonable expectations.

This year the meeting will commence on Tuesday, August, 15, and will close on Friday morning, August 25. The boarding will be $7.50 for the term, $1,25 per day, and 50 cents for a single meal.

The price of tents will be $6 for each one on the ground, and $5 each for those in the second story, with one dollar additional to each tent, in lieu of a public collection to meet incidental expenses, such as light, police, porterage, &c.

The drawing will take place at their office in this city, July 29th. On that day the names of those ordering will be put in one box and the numbers of the tents in another, and those appointed for that purpose will publicly draw a name and a number, so that all will be dealt with fairly. If persons so order they can have two tents side by side on the same floor, or the one below with the corresponding one above, or the two lower with the two upper ones.

Methodist preachers coming with their families will each receive a tent free; those coming without their families will be provided with sleeping accommodations.

We would recommend ordering tents early, as we may be unable to supply you at a late day. Always state distinctly whether you want a first or second story tent, or both.

Immediately after the drawing, notices will be sent to all who have sent in their orders.

Direct all letters to the West Branch Camp Meeting Association, Lock Haven, Pa.

By order of the Board:
J. N. WELLIVER, President,
G. O. DEISE, Secretary.

WEEPING AND WAILING, BUT NO GNASHING OF TEETH.—Terrible times in Warranton, Va., are thus depicted:—A few weeks ago, a dentist came to town and advertised that he would "remove all of a person's teeth for $2, and insert a new set for $10, besides giving six months' credit." The Warrenton people are very fond of bargains, so there was a rush for the dentist's office. He was busy for two weeks pulling teeth, and at the end of that time half the people had empty gums, and a bone dust factory in the neighborhood doubled its number of workmen so as to grind up the teeth. While the people were waiting for the dentist to fit them with their new sets, the abandoned scoundrel eloped with the hotel-keeper's wife; and now there are two or three thousand people in town who cannot eat anything tougher than soup or farina. All the butchers have failed, and not a cracker has been sold for six weeks. One man, it is said, whittled out a set of wooden teeth for himself; but the first drink of whisky he took—Warrenton whisky—set them in a blaze, and his funeral came off the next day. The dentist will hear of something greatly to his disadvantage if he comes back.

OPORTO GRAPE CULTURE.—This country is becoming noted for the the enterprise of wine growers. New Jersey particularly, where the celebrated Port Grape Wine is made purely from the grape juice. The following letter from an eminent physician who lives in sight of Speer's vineyard, will be of interest to our readers;

Passaic, Oct. 20th 1865.

I hereby certify that Mr. A. Speer of this village has a large vineyard of choice grape vines which are looking very fine. He also purchases a great many grapes, not as yet producing as many himself as is required to keep his stock of wine full. He has the Port Grape, the wine of which is held in high estimation and of which he has a large quantity on hand lying in his cellars, requiring age before he disposes of it.

R. A. TERHUNE, M. D.

The above wine can be procured of our druggists.

On the 13th inst., at the Parsonage in Clintonville Clinton Co. by the Rev., Jno., M. Kirk, Mr Justus M. Rossman to Miss Anna E. McKean, both of Nittany Hall Centre Co.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., at Hublersburg, of Cholera Infantum after Scarlet fever and Diotheria, Alphe Carothers, Son of Jesse and Sarah S. Swartz, aged 1 year, 2 months and 16 days.

On the evening of the 4th, at Penn Hall, Elizabeth, wife of Jacob Neese, aged 57 years.

Dear mother, thou art gone to praise
Our Saviour 'mong the heavenly race,
While we remain our loss to mourn,
Because thy soul is waited home.

Oh! mother dear, so good and kind,
Thy maternal love did always bind
The family circle heart to heart;
But now from earth thou'rt set apart.

Long years ago thou too wast gay,
As lambs upon a Summer day;
But Time, with her stiff onward flight,
Has made us sad this lonely night.

A home so pleasant just of late,
Has now become quite desolate;
Thy cheerful smile we ne'er shall greet,
Until we round God's throne shall meet.

Thy suffering thou calmly bore,
As patient Job in days of yore,
And when Christ's mandate bade thee come,
On snowy wings thou wandered home.

Oh! we who yet sweet life can claim,
Let's strive that we may heaven obtain,
When mortal curtains round us close,
In Jesus we shall find repose.

G. W. K.

On the 26th of September, 1870, Emma Gray, aged 17 years and 6 months.

Sorrow came into our dwelling,
On that sad September day.
With deep grief our hearts are swelling,
Grief which tears cannot allay.

Death among our happy number,
Claimed one beautiful and dear,
Closed the sweet blue eyes in slumber,
Hushed the voice we loved to hear.

Stopped the warm hearts faithful beating,
Chilled the lips we loved to kiss,
Footsteps once so light and fleeting,
Must, oh! must we always miss.

Hands, whose touch on ours yet lingers,
Clasped together cold and still,
And the impress of those fingers
We can trace them where we will.

Every object in our dwelling,
Speaks of one gone from our gaze,
Of her active labors telling,
Loving deeds and helpful ways.

In the daily family meeting,
"There will be a vacant chair,"
Her sweet smile and kindly greeting,
Feel, we ever, wanting there.

On the Sabbath when we gladly
Hastened to the house of prayer,
Her sweet voice we miss so sadly,
In the praises offered there.

In the Sabbath school we listen,
To young voices in their song,
But with tears our eyes will glisten,
For the dear one that is gone.

In the merry social circle,
Where her young companions meet,
Hearts that bound and eyes that sparkle,
Mourn for her they no more greet.

Oh! our dear one was a treasure,
Cherished true by many a heart,
Loved with fondness none can measure,
Yet death calls on all to part.

A kind father and fond mother,
Feel a sorrow none can know,
Little sisters and a brother,
May God comfort in their woe.

Oh! our hearts in sorrow languish,
We so miss our darling one,
Thou, who wept for others anguish,
Help us say, Thy will be done.

Grant us Thy divine endurance,
Help us bear the hearts deep pain,
We rejoice in the assurance,
That our loss has been her gain.

Early to the blessed Savior,
Her young heart was freely given,
Living daily in his favor,
Till the silver cord was riven.

Now she is sleeping—sweetly sleeping,
Free from all the woes we bear,
Free from sorrow pain and weeping,
Safe forever, "Over there."

Safe with Him who died to save thee,
Darling Emma rest thee on,
We shall meet when He, who gave thee,
Calls us home where thou art gone.

Affectionately inscribed to the memory of Emma Gray, by her teacher JENNIE M.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Hon. Charles A. Mayer, President of the court of Common Pleas, in the 25th Judicial District, consisting of the counties of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield, and the Honorables John Hosterman and the Honorable William Allison, Associate Judges in Centre county, having issued their precept, bearing date the 25th day of March A. D., 1871, to me directed for holding a court of oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the 4th Monday of April next, being the 24th day of April 1871, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroner Justice of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of the said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertains to be done, and those who are bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte, the 25d day of Mar. in the year of our Lord, 1871 and in the ninety-fourth year of the Independence of the United States.
